STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

The last dollar in the State Treasury went into the hands of one of the many claimants last Friday, and from now until some time in July, when the Sheriff begins to turn over their collections of the revenue, the deficit for 1891 will be growing. It is estimated that the deficit will reach $200,000, but by reason of the contract made with the local banks by the Governor and State Treasurer, the State's credit will not in the least suffer from an empty Treasury. Every claim against the State will be paid promptly.

The jury in the case of Sam Buckner, colored, on trial in the Christian Circuit court for the murder of his little brother, whom he whipped to death, returned a verdict, sending him to the penitentiary for life. After beating the child to insensibility he threw his body on the fire and then broke his neck with a kick. The jury stood eight to four for hanging. Three other colored murderers have been given life sentences at this term of court and Josh Maynor sent up for two years for manslaughter.

A keg of powder exploded in J. E. Raley's grocery at Madisonville recently. J. B. Stewart, a clerk, and D. A. Bondurant, a customer, were badly injured. Stewart's face and hands were burned to a crisp, and if he recovers he will probably lose both eyes. Bondurant was badly burned and injured by flying particles. The store was wrecked, and the buildings adjoining were badly damaged. The accident was caused by the discharge of a rifle in Stewart's hands while in close proximity to the powder.

GEN. JAMES A. EKIN, of the United States army, died at his home in Louisville last Thursday. Gen. Ekin was born in Pittsburg in 1819. He entered the army as Lieutenant Colonel of the One Hundredth Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was a member of the Commission which tried Mrs. Surratt, and bore a prominent part in the funeral of Lincoln. He was for many years Quartermaster of the Government at Jeffersonville, Ind.

Gov. BECKNER has issued his proclamation for the election to fill the vacancy in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals occasioned by the death of W. W. Longmire, to be held at the next regular election, the first Monday in August. The State Democratic Committee will doubtless now meet to arrange for the nomination of a candidate.

The race for the Democratic nomination for Representative promises to be the liveliest and most hotly contested that has taken place in Jessamine for years. Hon. J. H. Welch, a member of the State Central Committee and former Representative, will run again, and W. J. Mitchell will also be a candidate. ONE year ago last Friday a terrible cyclone visited Kentucky, killing many people and destroying much property. A memorial service was held at Louisville on the anniversary, and at the close of the meeting $500 was subscribed to the Children's Free Hospital.

The new pumping engine of the Owensboro Water Works Company, was completed Friday and given a public trial, after about three years' work. It gave satisfaction, and the people of that city now think they have protection from fire.

EGENE CRISP, who was shot at Shepherdsville several days ago, is at the point of death. If he dies it is believed that the four colored men in jail at Shepherdsville charged with the attack upon him will be lynched.

SALLIE JONES, a colored woman living on Joseph Evans' farm, near Leesburg, is only 38 years of age, and gave birth to her twentieth child last week. Her eldest is 21 years of age. Only nine of the twenty are living.

ROBERT KIMBROUGH, of Harrison county and Miss Sallie Johnson, of Scott county, were married in Covington last week. The couple eloped from home just for the novelty of the thing.

JAMES MCCHESNEY, of Powell county, aged 75 years, died on Thursday of last week. He was the oldest Mason in that county, a member of Stanton Lodge, by whom he was buried.

For the murder of Louis J. Specht, a saloon keeper at Louisville, Henry Smith, colored, has been sentenced to death.

OVER THE WORLD IN A WEEK.

—La grippe is epidemic in nearly all the cities throughout the North and West.

—A pocket of gas in an oil well near St. Mary's, W. Va., exploded and severely injured two drillers.

—Six prisoners, charged with minor offenses, broke jail at Pine Bluff, Ark., last week, and escaped.

—The lock-out of the clothing cutters at Rochester, N. Y., has thrown 20,000 persons out of employment.

—D. S. Morrison, deputy Circuit court clerk of Scott county, Virginia, is wanted for forgeries aggregating $30,000.

—At Hillsboro, Ohio, during a quarrel over horses, Philip Hook emptied a load of shot into Charles West's shoulder.

—At Tiffin, Ohio, an explosion of natural gas damaged the Sterling Emery Wheel works to the extent of $15,000.

—Burglars blew open the safe of Peelle & Taylor's office in Indianapolis, Ind., but got nothing. The explosion scared them off.

—Mary E. Ewing, of Bellefontaine, O., 35 years old, has filed suit for divorce from Charles A. Ewing, who is 63 years old, alleging habitual drunkenness.

—A portrait of George Washington, hanging in the Arkansas Legislative chamber for twenty years, has been removed for a painting of Jefferson Davis.

—Spontaneous combustion caused a $40,000 fire at George W. Alexander & Co.'s hat factory, Reading, Penn. Several hundred operatives are thrown out of work.

—Woods & Co., commission merchants of Chicago, were recently swindled out of a large amount of money by Thos. F. Sibley on a forged bill of lading for eleven cars of stock.

—James Bernard, one of the New York grafters who sent green goods circulars to Russell Harrison and other well known persons, has been convicted of improperly using the mails.

—At Anderson, Ind., while removing a large boulder from a field by horse power, Samuel Brannenburg had his skull fractured by being hit with a piece of broken chain.

—Anna Dillier, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has filed suit against Frank Jones, of Shelbyville, Ind., for $10,000 damages for injuries incurred by a runaway team hired of the defendant.

—Senator Gordon, of Georgia, recently met with a heavy loss at his Taylor county stock farm. The Flint river rose suddenly in the night and two hundred of Gen. Gordon's brood mares were drowned.

—Wm. Garner, of Mexico, Mo., died a few days since, and his death is supposed to have been from hydrophobia caused by being bitten by a vicious dog about twenty years ago. Others think it was a case of d. t.

—Peter Haus, of Wauquim, Penn., has laid a wager that he can eat a calf and drink a pony keg of beer in two hours. Haus stipulates that he may stand in a tub of hot water during the performance of his gastronomic feat.

—The parents of Millie Capees, aged 19, residing at Fanninville, Penn., wanted her to marry an ancient but wealthy suitor, while Millie loved and wanted to marry a poor young man. To settle the difficulty she killed herself.

—The Brooklyn (N. Y.) police are making an unenviable record for the "Fire-bug" Hugh C. Miller, the son of a wealthy people, and are endeavoring to convict him with all the incendiary fires that have occurred in that city for the last six months.

—A local passenger train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad ran into the rear of a freight train in a tunnel near Ft. Spring, W. Va., Thursday last. A passenger brakeman and the conductor of the freight were injured. The engine caught fire and the flames spread to the passenger train, which was totally destroyed, with the baggage and express.

—John D. Lewis, a colored lawyer of Philadelphia, who recently died, bequeaths a portion of his estate, valued at $100,000, as a fund for "The Lewis Protective Bureau of Civil Rights," the object of which is "to protect and secure to the colored citizens or colored persons in the United States their civil rights as applicable to all other classes of people."

Read What State Secretary Davis Has to Say About The Herald.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FARMERS AND

LABORERS' UNION OF KENTUCKY:

Brethren: In June, 1887, when the State Alliance was organized at Ezel, we had 42 sub-Alliances, three County Alliances and an estimated membership of 600. We were without funds, and almost without friends. Many of the best farmers in the State looked on the Alliance as a visionary scheme of some designing persons to forward their own personal ends. They consequently stood aloof, and refused to enter the organization, not knowing the intention of the Alliance.

The undersigned, accompanied by Bro. J. E. Quicksall, who had been elected President of the State Alliance, waited on Mr. Spencer Cooper, editor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, who kindly gave us an Alliance department in his paper, and promised us any assistance in his power. By this means the order was brought prominently before the farmers of Eastern Kentucky. The result was that in the twelve months following the Alliance had increased from 42 subordinate and three county organizations, to 15 County and 365 subordinate Lodges, and increased in membership from 600 to nearly 5,000. We today have 88 county and 2,400 sub-Unions in Kentucky, and an approximate membership of 100,000, and new Unions are being organized at the rate of ten a week.

Mr. Cooper has again offered us a department in THE HERALD, and in assuming control of it we do so with a full realization of our inability to do justice to it, and shall be largely dependent on the brethren of the various Unions to furnish the news, correspondence, &c., for this department.

We hope our members will subscribe for THE HERALD and induce their neighbors to subscribe. We should patronize our home paper, and thus help to build up our country and our order, and educate ourselves and children. This we can not do unless we read.

THE HERALD has proven the friend of the people of Eastern Kentucky, and it should receive the undivided support of the people.

We wish to return our thanks to other papers in Eastern Kentucky that have kindly given us space and spoken words of cheer to the members of the Union. We commend them to the people as worthy of their patronage.

With unfeigned love and love to all, I am,
Fraternally,
R. F. DAVIS.

To Nervous and Debilitated Men.

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, - - - Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
FRIDAY, - April 3, 1891.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
HON. M. C. ALFORD,
OF FAYETTE COUNTY,
Subject to action of the Democratic Party.

The brilliant and brainy young statesman, Hon. Mitchell C. Alford, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, is the acclaimed choice of a people who delight to do honor to one who is so deserving; to a gentleman personally and politically pure in his every action; to a firm friend of the farming interests, as evidenced by his record in the State Senate; to a man devoted to the development of the dear old State that gave him birth; to one learned in the law, common and constitutional. In short, one who embodies all the essentials, equitably balanced by justice, requisite to the semi-executive position he seeks. And this glad acclaim that arises from an admiring multitude wafts with it the soul-stirring shibboleth, "He is the apple of our eye," and every tongue that tingles with music echoes the sweet strains of the song from the opaque Ohio to the curling Cumberland, from the mighty Mississippi to the booming Big Sandy. In the workshop and the private walks of life—along railroads and the rural highways—from the mountain fastness and the fern-clad stream—in the domicile of the rich and the dwelling of the poor—everywhere that tongue articulates the adient voice of the heart, Alford is the choice. The Democracy of this grand and glorious old Commonwealth is to be congratulated on the possession of so valiant a son, and under his leadership victory is sure to perch upon our banner.

Ex-Senator W. H. Taulbee gave us a call last week to renew his subscription to THE HERALD, and when asked about the State canvass he said he was uncommittal. But at mention of the name of Col. John O. Hodges his eye kindled and his cheek flushed with the bloom of youth. He seemed to forget that he was old and infirm and paced the floor with the vigor of early manhood. Said he: "Mr. Cooper, of all the men it has ever been my pleasure to know, Col. Hodges is one among the best. He is a scholar, educator and Christian gentleman, and I take great pleasure in recommending him to all those who may not know him. Five years ago, when my wife and I were visiting the Colonel, I told him that I hoped to live to see him State Superintendent, and if my friends will do what I think to be the right thing I may yet see that day."

Judge Swango is letting no grass grow under his feet, neither sage or blue, but is making an exceedingly hot canvass in his race for Register of the Land Office. Editorial encomiums appear in nearly every exchange we receive, and indicate in unmistakable terms the sentiment of the people throughout the State. In all sections he is gaining strength, and notably among those who are rallying to his support are the old Confederate soldiers, who hold a strong affection for him. The people of Eastern Kentucky will remember him for the efforts he has put forth to quiet land titles and to have the State redrafted so as to give us equal representation with other sections, and when the convention meets his mountain friends will be there to give him his reward in a rousing, united support.

Dr. Clardy's home county is for him first and last. The Hopkinsville Kentuckian says: "Several of the candidates for minor State offices have friends in this county who are concerned about their races, but other candidates surely do not expect Christian to give any instructions except for her own candidate for Governor. The convention, on May 2, will instruct for Dr. Clardy, and my instructions further than this would be unusual and unfair to him. No delegation can effectively present a candidate to a convention if his hands are tied upon all matters likely to come up. There must be no thought of instructing for this, that or the other candidate, if

Dr. Clardy is to be loyally presented to the convention by his home county."

The Capital removal question is just now agitating the Constitutional Convention. The committee that have the matter in charge are divided, five being for its remaining at Frankfort and six for leaving its location to a vote of the people. An effort to get an opinion from our people elucidates that they are for Lexington if it be removed, though some think it should remain where it is.

PUBLIC OPINION.

A Good Official First.

Woodford W. Longmoor, the lately elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals, died very suddenly last week in the capital at Frankfort. His death was caused by a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Green B. Addams, his brother-in-law, has been announced as a candidate to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Longmoor. He agrees to accept only a deputy's salary and allow the proceeds to go to Mr. Longmoor's widow. If Mr. Addams is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office it would be doing the proper thing. The office would be well attended to and an act of charity done at the same time. But unless he is well qualified, some one else should have the office. Charity should be bestowed where practicable, but when it would be the cause of a failure to secure a good official it should be bestowed in some other way. The first consideration is a good official. —Lexington Herald.

All For Mrs. Longmoor.

It has been decided that Mr. Addams will be a candidate to fill out the seven remaining years of Mr. Longmoor's term, all the emoluments of the office to be paid over to Mrs. Longmoor. He has already announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination and no one can be found who will be able to defeat him. It is hard to defeat sentiment at any time, but especially so when founded in justice and fairness. Mr. Addams was at the time of his brother-in-law's death a deputy in the office, has large experience in such clerical work, and no harm can come to the public service by reason of his promotion. Under our laws the widow can not hold the office, but the comrades, friends and admirers of the dead official can aid the afflicted wife by voting for her representative. The Herald and the people of Logan county are for Mrs. Longmoor. —Russellville Herald.

Suite to Oppose Addams.

The sentiment that brought about the nomination of Wood Longmoor last May was not a circumstance to that that has sprung up for his widow now. It is suicidal for any gentleman to think of opposing her brother for the succession to the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. It will be Mrs. Longmoor first and the rest nowhere when the convention assemblies May 13.—Owensboro Messenger.

Kentucky With the Widow.

The politicians may as well stand back. Public sentiment is in favor of giving the Appellate Clerkship to Mr. Green B. Addams since he has obligated himself to turn the fees over to his sister, the widow of Capt. Longmoor.—Maysville Bulletin.

Protect Your Health.

Cold and moisture combined have a torporizing effect upon the bodily organs, and the digestive and secretory processes are apt to be more tardily performed in winter than in the fall. The same is true, also, of the excretory functions. The bowels are often sluggish, and the pores of the skin throw off but little waste matter at this season. The system, therefore, requires opening up a little, and also purifying and regulating, and the safest, surest and most thorough tonic and alternative that can be used for these purposes is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Persons who wish to escape the rheumatic twinges, the dyspeptic agonies, the painful disturbances of the bowels, the bilious attacks, and the nervous visitations, so common at this time of the year, will do well to reinforce their systems with this renowned vegetable stomachic and invigorant. It improves the appetite, strengthens the stomach, cheers the spirits, and reinvigorates the whole physique.

—In acknowledging donations to the larier, the editor of the Ellijay (Ga.) Courier says: "Nothing succeeds like success. We recently received a present of a washpail of dried beans. The butcher also sent us a soup bone. We are now prepared to endure an unlimited siege of hard times."

Address: SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky.

Floyd Day is taking in Clay City and Louisville this week.

Rev. J. Z. Haney and his entire family are down with the grip.

Little Dora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Swango, is very sick with measles.

Kelly McClure, who has been sick at this place, was removed to his home on Grassy Wednesday.

Mark McClain, a young man living with W. T. Swango, has had a severe attack of measles, but is out again.

Judge Swango, who was visiting his family and friends at this place from Saturday until Tuesday, left on the afternoon of that day for Ezel, and thence went to Frankfort.

Rev. E. P. Mickel will begin a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church in this place on Monday night after the third Sunday in April, continuing every night during the week.

Hon. Harvey Meyers, ex-Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives, a Mr. Miller, of Covington, and Mr. Baker, of Jackson, were guests of the Day House on Monday night.

The Kincaid trial is still in progress at Washington, and several Kentucky Congressmen testified Monday. The case will probably go to the jury this week, and we will next week give the result.

The grip is prevailing to an alarming extent in this place, and there are so many students confined to their homes by it that the Academy had only about forty scholars in attendance on Tuesday.

Rev. Jas. E. Wright requests us to state that he will hold a church meeting at the M. E. church of this place on Saturday (tomorrow), 4th inst., at 8 o'clock P. M. All the members of the church are requested to be present.

The non-arrival of our paper compels us to issue only a half sheet this week, but as soon as we receive a supply, which we hope to do during the coming week, our subscribers will each week receive a paper chock full of good things. Come in and renew today.

Mary Chandler, formerly a resident of Hazel Green, but now of Lahr, Harrison county, Ky., writes to know the subscription terms of THE HERALD, and would like to have a copy. Our terms are $1 per year, always in advance, sent post paid to any address in the United States or Canada.

Our friends of the Farmers' Alliance should carefully read the letter of State Secretary B. F. Davis on the first page of our paper this week. Owing to failure to get our paper, we are compelled to omit the Alliance department this week, but as soon as it comes to hand our farmer friends will find it full and complete every week.

EDITOR HERALD—I see a communication in your valuable paper recently signed by Esq. W. B. Duff, of Campton. I desire to say that I endorse every word of said communication, and cheerfully join in asking the Judge of the County Court to call a special session of the Justices of the Peace to secure a more desirable location for our magnificent jail building which we have under contract.

Yes, "Let Us Have a Square Deal."

In THE HERALD of the 20th ultimo, under the heading as above, appears an article reflecting on the predominant religious body of Hazel Green, which, without egotistic arrogance, is the Christian Church; also another insertion relative to Constitutional rights, fraught with insinuations construed to convey the same reflections. Following these, in the issue of the 27th, is still another in regard to a certain dropped letter, not directed to Bro. Cooper or THE HERALD, which is spoken of and the village made a "Commune" hotbed in the excited imagination of our friend Cooper, feverish from the editorials of the week before. With the kindest feelings to all and malice toward none, we deem it but a "square deal" to mention our position in the matters made public, and were these things confined to our village alone and not heralded to the reading public and being reprinted by the press, 't would never receive one word from the body we represent. As it is, we feel that justice to all concerned demands an expression from the Christian Church. If any religious "domineering" or "bullying" can be attributed to our body in Hazel Green, we are unaware of it, and feel justified in entering protest. As to others, we have nothing to say. If it is a crime to meet, as did the Disciples, and break bread on the Lord's day regularly, regardless of any regular or special appointment of any minister of any church, Christian or otherwise, then we plead guilty, but such service is studiously arranged so as not to take place during the time of service at any other church. If inviting a minister, who by force of circumstances unpremeditated happens to be in our village, to preach to the brethren, which has occurred only a few times in the last ten years, is an action to call forth bitter denunciations, we regret it; yet this has occurred with others as well as with us, and against others we have not the slightest ill-will, as we believe that it is the duty of any church organization to have preaching as often as suits their convenience. Many times in the past have we deprived ourselves of the pleasure and privilege of holding services when ministers of our belief were in our midst, for fear of wounding some one's feelings; and now suppose the sequel of the bitter denunciations was the occurrence in February when by accident a minister being present, and because of business connected with his trip was asked to fill the pulpit of the Christian church. There should be no unkind feelings engendered by any congregation asking to have services when a minister is present by accident or visiting in our midst, and in the future we expect to extend such invitations and accord others the same privilege, bidding them God speed in any and all good work.

As regards the anonymous letter mentioned, which was directed to a certain person in our town, which was never delivered and seen only by one young man (so stated), we know nothing, and have only contempt for one who hides behind such actions. Such communications are beneath notice and we deplore an individual action which seeks to bring stigma on a community. The young man who read it now says it was not "insulting," "filthy" or "threatening" further than (as regards threats) some would quit taking THE HERALD. Not "filthy" further than speaking of bane of drink. Not "insulting" further than aggravating the person for whom that letter was intended or to whom we understand it was addressed, has our whole heart in their interest and is above reproach. THE HERALD and its staff are one of us, and we regret that Bro. Cooper thinks he is in danger of assassination or believes there is a "Commune" organization in the town; such is not the case, for he has helped keep our citizenship above the plane of barbarism.

With the highest regard to, and Christian feeling for all,

CHRISTIAN CHURCH OFFICERS.

Hazel Green, Ky.

In vindication of our position with reference to the articles above referred to, we have to say that we were maliciously imposed upon, there being no foundation for the assertions made, and for the good of all we are glad to state that the church officers concur in this opinion and exonerate us from intentional wrong. And now, leaving the matter to be combated by those who concocted the stories we disclaim the subject, sincerely hoping that peace, sweet peace, may henceforth and forever rule in our loved little village.

Our Army of Readers.

WOLFE.

Gillmore Gleanings.

Archibald Ridd, an old war comrade
and messmate of this scribe, whom I had not seen for seventeen years, was visiting his son Oscar Ridd at this place on the 29th inst. He lives in Magoffin county.

Rev. James F. Ely, who has been in a critical condition all winter, does not seem to improve any.

Wm. G. Halsey, who has had the fever so long, is getting able to walk about the house.

Mrs. Rev. J. M. Little still remains
very sick.

Brother Andrew Kash is very sick.

March 30. UNCLE REMUS.

CITY COBBLER.

Rain seems to be the order of the day.
M. S. Crain has returned to Cincinnati.

Easter Sunday passed with the usual manifestations of joy.

That's right, Bro. Cooper, stick to the all home print. Success to THE HERALD.

Rev. W. H. Crain, of Booneville, preached a glowing and interesting sermon
at this place on the 29th inst.

The weather is becoming loathsome to the farmers, and farm work goes without doing.

The messenger of death, on March 28,
visited the home of B. M. Cuthbertson and took away one of its dearly beloved infants—a lovely little infant. Two others are very ill, one seriously, owing to a relapse of the measles. Drs. Swango and Kendrick are attending them.

MORGAN.

West Liberty Wisp.

Circuit court convened last Monday with his honor Judge Cooper on the wood rack, and M. M. Redwine at his post. There was a good crowd in town, but jockeys say it was a dull day in their line of business as only a few changed horses. The following persons compose the juries: Grand Jury—M. Carpenter, foreman; J. S. Nickell, Jack Black, J.
M. Lewis, D. N. Ferguson, M. R. Steele,
A. B. Lovelace, J. M. Perry, Jr., R. B.

ley, Pettit Jury—W. G. Blair, H. C.
Ferguson, E. P. Lewis, J. W. Wheeler,
James Williams, W. P. Samples, Milt
Williams, B. F. Wykins, J. W. Day, H.
ram Greer, R. C. Day, J. M. Adkins, W.
A. Lacy, Charles W. Cecil, Boone Oldfield, R. F. Williams, W. H. Elam, Dock
Leon, Miles Little, J. T. Wells, John D.
Fannin, James K. Nickell, J. W. Bays, Wm. Pack. Cases were disposed of as follows: Commonwealth vs. J. C. Tipton, charged with murder; set for trial on the seventh day of this term. Commonwealth vs. Amos Lewis, charged with murder; continued for defendant and set for fourth day of next term. Commonwealth vs. Henry Bechtholmer, cutting and wounding; continued for Commonwealth, and set for second day of next term. Commonwealth vs. Lee Gillum, murder; continued for defendant,
and set for third day of next term.
Commonwealth vs. James Lawson, rape;
fled away. Commonwealth vs. Jack Wright, &c., cutting and wounding;
continued for Commonwealth, and set
for second day of next term.

A social given by the Christian Endeavor last Friday evening, at the residence of O. W. Burns, it being the first entertainment given by the society at this place, was to say the least of it, a very enjoyable affair, especially when the dining room was reached, as we had a stool to sit on while the others had to stand up. It is unnecessary to say that the ladies did not starve, but were well served.

from this point is necessarily crowded
out.—Ed.]

Ezel Evolutions.

Asa McFarrey, little son of A. J.
Nickell, one day last week yoked himself up with a calf. When all things were ready the amateurs set themselves
a-going. The calf soon acquired considerable momentum, and out went the boy. The boy realizing his situation at once set up a yell which brought the family to his rescue, but not until the calf had dragged him through gaps and over the pasture at a furious rate, and when found was nearly choked to death.

By proper management the boy was soon restored, and after a few days of fearful soreness, he is himself again plus a very disagreeable experience.

The Hazel Green Fair Association will have to use some of the patent stretchers
that are on the market in order to meet the wonderful increase in stock raising in this country. Dr. A. B. Nickell, deputy county clerk at this place, has issued stock licenses for this year up to the present date to the amount of $53,
and the owners of said stock are all within hearing of the Ezel mill whistle.

Our quiet little town is once more invigorated by the merry whistle of T. E.
Johnson, who has recently cast his lot among us again. He last week bought a wagon and team of Emery Carr and has engaged in hauling lumber in the neighborhood of Rothwell Station, so he will not be with us much for some time,
except occasionally when he comes home
to wet his whistle.

It was once thought that if one should lose their "grip" that they would be about "played out," but just now your scribe with a host of other unfortunate creatures in this locality would welcome
the loss "that knows no finding."

"Jim Nick" had a terrible time with the Masonic goat last Saturday night,
but he succeeded in "bosing" the situation.

Miss Lela Willis, who has been teaching instrumental music at this place, left today for her home in Madison county.
Robert Cecil, who has been in Oregon
for about six years, is visiting relatives in Morgan.

March 30. BLAUNT.

A Novel Offer.

We have received a copy of the Dominion Illustrated, which is the only high class illustrated journal published in Canada. With the beginning of the present year it was enlarged to 24 pages weekly, and new and striking literary features have been added. It is profusely illustrated in the highest style of photography art, and is altogether a highly interesting journal and a credit to Canadian skill and enterprise. The publishers have inaugurated a prize competition for the current six months, which bears the stamp of originality. Six questions are published each month, and the material for answering them is found in the numbers for that month. Only subscribers compete, and the prizes, which number 100, exceed $3,000 in value. The smallest is valued at $5, and the first is $750 in value. The publishers announce that any dissatisfied prize-winner may exchange a prize for the cash value at which it is rated in the published list. As the illustrated is not a "fake" journal it has every reason for keeping faith with subscribers. The publishers (The Sabiston Litho. and Pub. Co., Montreal) announce that on receipt of 12 cents in stamps (Canadian or American) they will forward to any address a sample copy with full particulars as to terms, etc.

A Welcome Visitor.

CLIFTY, KY., March 28, 1891.
MR. SPENCER COOPER: Dear Sir—
Your valuable paper the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, has been a regular visitor at my home for the past three years, and I can say without reluctance that it is all a welcome visitor—a bit of literature eagerly looked for each Friday afternoon. Every issue is filled almost to overflowing with messages from friends, associates and fellow-countrymen; and not only these, it is devotedly devoted to the interests of its country, both financially and morally. Its able editor deserves the commendation and patronage
of every true friend of Eastern Kentucky.
Sincerely yours, - R. S. CHAIN.

(third heat) four-year-old record 2:22; five-year-old 2:20; (fourth heat); six-year-old trial 2:17.

Black horse, 15 hands 3 inches high; foaled June 15, 1883. Bred at Ashland Park.

Sired by BANKER, 4144.
Own brother to Lyander, sire of Lyander
Boy 2:20; Watt 2:24; William Kearney
2:50; Lyander Chief 1646.

First dam Fattie Patchen, trial 2:58; granddam
of Chestnut Wilkes 2:29; by Mambrino
Patchen, sire of the dams of Guy Wilkes 2:15; Astral 2:18; Rosa Wilkes 2:18; Elvin 2:18; Clara 2:18; Henri 2:17, and 29 others in the 230 list.

Second dam Mandy by Stanhope's Blood Hawk, sire of dam of Almost 2:27; and Alicy Wilkes 2:26.

Third dam Pattie, by Dowling's Vermont,
sire of the dam of Falmes 2:26; Mambrino
Bruce 2:40; sire of K. H. Curry 2:18; Bell
Wilson 2:25; Gill's Vermont, sire of Bonner Boy 2:23, and sire of the dams of Abel
2:24; Col. Bradshaw 2:20; Nelly L.
2:23; Gambetta 2:26; The King 2:29;
Outlaw 2:29; Pearl 2:30.

Fourth dam Jesse, by Thomas Jefferson.
He is a beautiful black, with right hind ankle white, stands 15½ hands high, and is a perfect horse all over, having both bone and substance combined, with the form and finish characteristic of the cross he so well represents, viz: Hambletonian sire and Man-brino Patchen dam. This cross stands as a very best, because public performances have demonstrated its value. Of its many representatives not one is the superior of Bermuda, for not one has demonstrated the same ability to train on from year to year, beginning in the yearling foal; none are better bred or better looking.

As a sire he is of course untried, his first
colts being foaled in 1889, now yearlings.
Judged by this age, he is again ever directing more uniform natural gaited colts with speed unprecedent. He will stand for mares, season of 1891 at $200 TO INSURE, the money to be paid as follows: $100 at the time of service and the other $100 when the mare proves in foal. Being limited to 30 outside mares, parties wishing to breed to him
had better book their mares early.

Mares bred by the season, not proving in foal, have the usual privilege of return. I breed sound, highly finished trots, and have for sale high bred colts and fillies, out of producing dams, by a greater number of prominent sires, than any farm in the land. For sale at prices based on actual individual merit. For further information see catalogues, which can be had on application.

FAYETTE WILKES,

(Trial Oct. 9, 1886, 2:23½).

Bay horse, 15 hands
3 inches high, foaled May 3, 1878. The handsome son of his great sire, and the handsomest of any trotting bred horse to the United States.

Sired by George Wilkes, 2:22.

Sire of Harry Wilkes, 2:15; Guy Wilkes
2:15; Mike Wilkes, pacer, 2:15; Wilson 2:16; No. 80 2:17; Wilcox, pacer,
2:16; Rosa Wilkes 2:18; Wilton 2:19;
Joe Bunker 2:19; Flora Wilkes, pacer,
2:19; Tom Rogers 2:20, etc.

First dam Sally Hamlet (winner of two-year-old Hamlet Stakes in 1875), by Hamlet (sire of Loretta F 2:18; A. Y. Paulin
2:20; Truro, pacer, 2:22; Lady M 2:23; Leontine 2:23; Brookside Flora 2:29, and the dams of Thurlow 2:18; Cyclone
2:23; Grady 2:25; Graceland 2:25, and Hamletta 2:29).

Second dam Sal (dam of Conover 2:30; Captain Clay, Driftwood, and granddam of Marlowe, pacer, 2:15; by Canada Chief, sire
of dams of Governor, 2:30; and Joe Hooker, sire of Maud Maery, 2:17, etc.

Third dam (the dam of Safe, that produced Blanche, 2:25½), by Imp. Yorkshire, sire of dam of Ashland Chief, sire of Black Cloud 2:17.

Fourth dam by Woodpecker, thoroughbred,
sire of Prince 2:27, ten miles in 28:08½.

The fee of Fayette Wilkes is within the reach of all, and lower than that of any horse of equal rank in Kentucky.

WEST CLOUD,

(5105)

Out of the dam of Black Cloud, 2:17½; his sire out of the dam of Wilson, 2:16½.

Bay horse, foaled March 31, 1884. Bred at Ashland Park.

Sired by ABDALLAH WEST, 2583,
(Sire of Wilku, 2:27).

First dam the dam of Black Cloud 2:17½;
by Pilot Walker, pacer.

Second dam the Clink pacing mare.

NOTE.—Abdallah West, 2583, by Allie
West, 1st dam Miss Conus, dam of Wilson,
2:16½, by Clark Chief, 2d dam Ohio, by American Clay, 3d dam brought from Ohio
and represented to be by Brown's Hellfounder; Abdallah West died at six years old.
He was the most promising colt ever bred.

West Cloud is a rich mahogany bay, 15
hands 2 inches, with black mane and tail and black legs extending above knees and hocks. He is a powerfully built horse for his height, and has the most finished set of feet and legs it is possible to get on a horse of any breed. As a two-year-old he gave evidence of being possessed of remarkable speed, as with little handling he trotted a half mile in 1:18 1-5, and miles in his work in 2:40. At three years old he was not trained, owing to a very severe attack of plunk-e. He also drew no work on the track as a four-year-old. As a five-year-old he was jogged and trained lightly, more for the purpose of ascertaining if he was entirely recovered than with a view of testing his speed. In a few months he trotted a full mile in 2:38 and half in 1:15. This season (1890) he served a few mares of my own and was not put to work until September, and his improvement was most remarkable. He repeatedly trotted halves in 1:10, and I am fully convinced he will with a season's training trot in 2:20. I will let him serve 300 mares of 1891, outside of ten of my own, at $50 THE SEASON, money due at time of service or before removal of mare. The usual return privilege given to return mare in 1892 should she not get in foal.
